

Fact on the Campaign to Boycott Israeli Goods

A campaign to boycott Israeli products and leisure tourism has gathered momentum across the globe. Money talks. The mission of BIG is to force foreign governments, corporations, and individuals to abandon their support of Israel vis-a-vis threats to their economic interests. The campaigns (BIG) will continue to grow until Israel withdraws from the occupied areas, respects human rights (including right of refugees to return to their homes and lands), and obeys International law.

Miftah encourages activists to use the boycott and divestment campaigns as educational tools regarding the supported provided for Israeli aggression by our purchases and investments. According to reports received from activist, comparisons are being made between BIG to the early successes that snowballed into the pressure on South Africa that ended Apartheid. Join us and united we will succeed in bringing peace and justice to all those in the Middle East regardless of race, religion, and ethnicity.

Settlement Products

In 1950 the Israeli Government proclaimed the Right of Return Law which means that any Jewish person anywhere in the world may go and live in Israel and become an Israeli citizen. Thousands flocked to illegal settlements on the West Bank, Gaza, East Jerusalem and the Golan Heights, tempted by offers of tax breaks and cheap housing, or fired by fundamentalist zeal. Armed to the teeth and protected by the Israeli 'Defense' Force, many settlers choose to live in Jerusalem or Tel Aviv and commute daily along the highways constructed specially for their use on large swathes of confiscated Palestinian land.

"Israel continues to export products manufactured in the settlements to EU markets despite such actions blatantly contravening the EU-Israel Association Agreement. Such products labelled as Israeli receive preferential access to the EU. By refusing to take action therefore, EU states are actually abetting violations of the Fourth Geneva Convention.

Executives Who Abuse Their Positions to Promote Zionism

AOL Time Warner's Ted Leonsis: In 1998, Mr. Ted Leonsis, CEO of AOL studios (a business unit of AOL) received the Jubilee Award by the Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu. This is the highest tribute ever awarded by the "State of Israel" in recognition of those individuals and organizations, that through their investments and trade relationships, have done the most to strengthen the Israeli economy. AOL allocates 30% of its investment portfolio in Israel.

Coca-Cola' Roberto Goizueta : The American Israel Chamber of Commerce and the Government of Israel Economic Mission honored Coca-Cola and chairman Roberto Goizueta at the Israel Trade Award Dinner in Atlanta on May 29. Goizueta has worked for Coca-Cola since 1954, transferring to the Atlanta headquarters in 1964. In 1980 he was elected president and chief operating officer. Coca-Cola has served the Israeli market for 30 years, refusing to abide by the Arab League economic boycott of Israel. For decades, this cost Coca-Cola the opportunity to sell its products in Arab countries.

Delta Galil's Dov Lautman: Its founder, chairman and major stock holder Mr. Dov Lautman is a close associate of Israeli President Ehud Barak.

Estée Lauder's Ronald Lauder: Lauder, the chairman, was one time the chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, is the current president of the Jewish National Fund (JNF) - a quasi-governmental agency whose main function is to legitimize Israeli occupation of Palestinian land. Ronald Lauder is an ardent Zionist, his activities have been catalogued by American Muslims for Jerusalem who called for a boycott in February 2001. In fact his views are often more extreme than some in the Israeli government.

The Limited's Leslie H. Wexner: Its founder, president and CEO Les Wexner is a Zionist. He is on the board of directors of Emet, the Pro-Israel Media "War Room" whose function is to ensure that all media in the US stays biased in favour of Israel.[]

LEWIS TRUST GROUP LTD's David Lewis -In 1998 Mr. David Lewis, President of Isrotel Hotel Management Lewis Trust Group Ltd, received the Jubilee Award by the Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu. This is the highest tribute ever awarded by the "State of Israel" in recognition of those individuals and organizations, that through their investments and trade relationships, have done the most to strengthen the Israeli economy. ". Mr Lewis maintained that he is involved in the joint "Israel- Jordanian" tourist project "because Shimon Peres asked me to be". Mr Lewis's activities have included the raising of money for the Jewish National Fund, a primary agency in the historic and continuing displacement of our Palestinian brothers from their land, ensuring only Jews use it. He is also a member of the ISRAEL-BRITAIN BUSINESS COUNCIL. This organisation is dedicated to the development of the Zionist State, by channelling British capital to the occupied territories for the benefit of the Zionists and the exploitation of the Palestinians.

HOME DEPOT's Bernard Marcus: Its founder, and Co-Chairman of the Board Bernard Marcus is an active Zionist. He is on the board of directors of Emet, the Pro-Israel Media "War Room" whose function is to ensure that all media in the US stays biased in favour of Israel.

Revlon's Ronald Perelman: Financier and cosmetics billionaire Ronald Perelman, who controls cosmetics maker Revlon, is a Zionist. Also owns New World Entertainment & Forbes. He supports Zionist causes - for example he is a trustee of The Simon Wiesenthal Center which uses the Holocaust to promote Zionism and Israel.

Starbucks Coffee Stores' Howard Shultz: Shultz, the chairman of Starbucks, is an active Zionist. In 1998 he was honoured by Israel with "The Israel 50th Anniversary Tribute Award" for his services to the Zionist state. His work as a propagandist for Israel has been praised by the Israeli Foreign Ministry as being key to Israel's long-term PR success. Recently, whilst the Israeli army was slaughtering Palestinians in Jenin, Nablus and Bethlehem he made a provocative speech blaming the Palestinians of terrorism and asking people to unite behind Israel. Starbucks has investments in Israel - a joint venture with Israeli conglomerate Delek Group for Starbucks outlets in Israel (Shalom Coffee Co).

Timberland's Jeffrey Swartz: Timberland is a $1.1 billion footwear, apparel & accessories company. Its President and CEO Jeffrey Swartz is an active Zionist. In a recent "solidarity visit" to Israel he advised how best to get Israel's propaganda lies acceptable to the US public. Did I come here as a Jew and as the CEO of Timberland? Yes. Might my board of directors say to me - what are you doing giving an interview to The Jerusalem Post expressing such strong feelings? Sure. But I owe this to my children, to my family, to you, and to the nation of Israel," he said. "The Godfather was wrong when he said this is nothing personal, it's just business. This is deeply personal," he concluded. In an interview where he made it clear he was speaking as the CEO of Timberland, he suggested sending 100 IDF thugs to the US for a week as ambassadors for Israel. Although Timberland is a publicly traded company, his family holds approximately 47% of the stock and has approximately 81% of the voting power. Israel has failed in the public relations war against the Palestinian Authority, and is likely to lose the support of the American public unless it stops reacting and starts communicating its own point of view, Jeffrey Swartz, president and CEO of the Timberland Company said on April 25, 2002.
